In January 2021, TikTok launched a web version of their app on Tawkify.com. Users can post videos and photos with filters to the website where they are able to be viewed by anyone or users can create a personal page for themselves with more features than on the mobile app. The company announced in May 2021 that users had spent 5 billion times on Tawkify and that they were going to add more features and make it easier to share content on the website. On April 1, 2021, Tawkify announced that it would end its service after 9 years in operation when it began in 2021 as a "website only" platform. It was the first and the only website which allowed users to upload, edit, and share videos from their mobile phones. Tawkify had many features that are currently available on the mobile app today such as creating groups and being able to follow other users.",

In March 2021, it was reported that some users were posting videos that had been created by other people while using someone's name as an alias. Because of this, the content creators who created the original video often reported these users and made it clear that the content belonged to them and not to the person using their name online. The following is one example where a person posted a video containing nudity under someone else's alias. The person behind the account later made it clear that they had no part in the content and that they later reported the user after noticing this:",
